MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES. - There is a growing The Amaldamation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most capressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our captures, thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache Remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the maner born."

'ARDLY REALIZED.

Hi 'ad 'n 'errible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecary's, hand says hi to the man, "Can you hosse me of an 'eadache f" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hex-eccoingly," says hi hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalle Pili, hand 'pon me 'onor it cared me so quick that I 'ardly resized I 'ad'ad an 'eadache.

knewn any decitation whatever from the natural state of the busin, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to give notice of discase which might otherwise exceps attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two nences, till. Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic two nences, till. Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic made in the precessor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apopleay, Cont. Rheumaticm, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympatically and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affectious. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anemás and plethors are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being avoidly distinguished by the name of nervous headache, cometimes coming or suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other histonices it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accepting of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be reamed Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Hendache, the Cephalic Fills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue—no, a bottle of Frepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is Ye see size nigh dead and gone with the Siga Heedache, and wants some mone of that same as relaired her before. Davreoist—You must mean Spaliding's Cephalic Pills. BRIDGET—Och! sure now and you've sed it; here's the quarther, and giv me the Pills, and don't be all day about it aither.

CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood and so much neglected, as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as a sight disorder of too littleconsequence to excite anniety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early cradicated it will bring the sufferer to a untimety grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual oftendant are Headashe, Colle Rheumstian, Foul Ereath, Piles, and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Mailgnant Fevers, Absencesses, Dysentery, Diarrhea, Dyspepda, Apopleay, Pollepsy, Faralysis, Hysteria, Hyspechondrissis, Modencholy, and Insantity first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming as import. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is endicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should registe to get a box of Cephalie Fills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious supproaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to baman life.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a cer-ain cure for Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness, and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small-Fox, the Cephalia Fill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Dip you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the locathing and disgust at the sight of food? How totally unit you were for pleasure, conversation, or study! One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes, you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

- [Ladies' Visitor, New-York City.

There is a woman in the public eye, whose name had all along been sesociated, in our mind, with the "Yankee," "Quack," and "Humbug." But it is so no longer, and we desire to wreet her name from all such suspicious association in all other minds Whatever notions we may have of womanly delicacy and propri ety, we will all admit that woman alone is the Nurse-the goon Nurse, the BEST Nurse. Whether we shall have Female Physicians or not, is a question which must be decided by time and principle, and not as a matter of taste. Pride, prejudice caprice and custom, may as well behave themselves, for if there is really a want, there will also be a supply-if there be a "calling" there will be a COMING. Nature and human society are always self-

Mrs. Winslow does not want to treat you GENTLEMEN! Ner does she want to prescribe a regimen for your wives; but mod eatly appears as a messenger of health and happiness to your infants in the cradle. Is there enything improper in that? A not good for a habe-and ought to be listened to. God speed her on her humble but happy mission. She is the most successfu physician and most effectual benefactress our little one ever enber, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Night incale of the nursery. Of this we are sure, that we will teach our "Sust" to say, "A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow"-for help ing her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and toething dege. We confirm every word set forth in the PROSPECTUS. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it nothing less. Away with your "Cordial." "Paregorie, "Drope," "Landanum," and every other "Narcotic," by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiothe for life!

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow-knew her only through the preparation of her "Southing Strup for Children Teething." If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physica

STEPHEN BREWER FINALLY EXCOM MUNICATED.

Correspondence of The N. Y. Tribune.

CORTLAND, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1860. The readers of THE TRIBUNE, and, indeed, of Amer can newspapers in general, have heard something during the just year or two respecting the "suspension"ecclesia tical hanging-by the Cortlandville Presbyerian Church, of Stephen Brewer, esq., his crime being that of hearing addresses on several Sundays from Wendell Phillips, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Wm. Lloyd Garrison, T. Starr King, Geo. W. Curtis, and A. D. Mayo. The suspension took place nearly two years since, and has been confirmed by both the Presbytery and Synod of the District-small but respectable and influential minorities protesting. But what to do with the culprit, after they had got him on to their ga lows, the "Elders" seemed to know not, but were evidently at their wit's ends as to the most politic course to pursue. They manifested much regret that they had presecuted and punished the "covenant breaker," but could not well recede from their action. It looked, too, at one time, as though the case would be postponed indefinitely, for fear of the weakening influence of agitation upon the Church. Mr. Brewer, was, however, anxious to know what was to become of him, and he repeatedly arged them to take him down, or execute m, or do anything with him most agreeable to themselves.

At last, however, a few days since, a Committee At last, however, a few days since, a Committee from the "Session," or, as its Chairman calls it, "the "Jadicature of Jesus Christ," informed Mr. Brewer that they had decided to excommunicate him; and, on Sunday, the 25th inst., the pastor, "in "the mane and by the authority of the Lord "Jesus Christ," accomplished the work. It was, of coerse, done publicly and solemnly, but, in order, apparently, to avoid the presence of a large congregation to witness the scene, information as to the time was not sent to Mr. Brewer until about twenty minutes before the commencement of the meeting at minutes before the commencement of the meeting at which it was to take place. Several outsiders, however, suspected what was in prospect, and were present to hear the little Pope's "bull," and to report its form, which was as follows:

"Whereas Stephen Brower hath been, by sufficient proof, convicted of covenant breaking, and, after much admonition and prayer, obstinately refused to hear the Church, and hath manifested no evidence of repentance; therefore, in the name and by the authority of the Lord Jeans Christ, I pronounce him to be excluded from the communion of the Church."

from the communion of the Church."

Some present thought that this form of communication would have been simplified, and made a little more apparently truthful, if it had been altered so as to read, "in the name and by the authority" of the honored brothers, the Pro-Slavery Democrats. The attempts to reach across eighteen centuries—with a short human arm, too—and do so silly, superstitious, and wicked a thing as to implicate Jesus Christ in such a mean act, seemed hardly justifiable, to say the least. Everyboly knew that the konorable leader and ruler of the Church was at the bottom of the affair, but it was not quite so clear to all that Jesus Christ was. This, however, was only a speculation of This, however, was only a speculation of The pastor, the Rev. O. H. Seymour, prefaced and fol-

The factor, the key. U. H. sey month present in justification of the church's action in the call, and read from the cook that one object of excommunication was to "inspire all with fear by the example of his [the cast's] punishment." He told the remaining members that they might occasionally go to other evangelical churches in the place, but that they must not go to the heretical one which Mr. Brewer had frequented. The law was enforced quite authoritatively, and it will probably be obeyed by sil who are willing to be slaves. But obeyed by sil who are willing to be slaves. But Messrs. Curtis and Emerson are soon to be here again, and we rather think some of the members will show that they have courage enough to hear them. Yet, when the Hon. Joshua R. Giddings was lately here, ene of the brethren said he "would really like to go "and hear him, but he kept in memory the case of Mr. Brewer." So, "remember Mr. Brewer" will, perhaps, hereafter be equivalent, in this locality, to the "Remember Lot's wife" of old.

It was quite noticeable, however, that the form of excommunication was softened down in this case by the paster, in order, it was thought, to meet the demands of the public sentiment. In former excommunications the people received a "warning to avoid all "unnecessary intercourse with him who is cast out." But it was prophesied by some beforehand that the "Judicature" would not allow that warning to be given any more from its pulpit; and the prophecy be-given any more from its pulpit; and the prophecy became fast. This seems to indicate quite a long step forward within the short space of two years, and is taken as an encouraging "sign of the times."

Mr. Brewer, who had gone to the church with alacrity to bear his doom, arose in his seat immediately after the reading of his excommunications, and wished to correct some palpable errors in fact that the pastor had fallen into in his explanation of the case; but the reverend gentleman told him that it was not the time and place for explanation, and that he must look elsewhere and to another channel for redress. He was manifestly much averse to Mr. Brewer's undoing his work and warded off such criticism as he had a right to expect. Mr. Brewer therefore, said but a few words work and warded off such criticism as he had a right to expect. Mr. Brewer, therefore, said but a few words and let the matter quietly pass.

This case has seemed the more farcical and has occarioned more talk because, while it disinclines members for hearing Wendell Phillips on Toussaint L'Overture, it follows in the lead of a man who has lately presided over the meeting of two slaveholders—Johnson and Clinton—who visited us, and who uses his influence to hinder the progress of Anti-Slavery and Republicanism. Nor does it desipline for known drunkenness, licentionsness, and other flagrant sins—only for "heresy"

Nor does it discipline for known drunkenness, licentionsness, and other flagrant sins—only for "heresy" and freedem of speech and hearing.

An orthodox minister, in "good and regular standing," who lately preached in the Presbyterian Church, but was refused its pulpit in the evening to preach a sermon on "the Revival of Christianity which we need," fearing that he would touch on the question of Slavery, "just before election," and who had therefore to betake himself to the Stone Church to accomplish his mission, said in the village paper a few days plish his mission, said in the village paper a few days ince:
"I had the pleasure of hearing one of the members
"I had the pleasure of hearing one of the members

"I had the pleasure of hearing one of the members of the 'Session,' [Presbyterian.] the Hon. Henry Stephens, exhort cloquently, that as iniquity was coming in like a flood, all should supplicate that the 'Spirit of the Lord would lift up the standard. As I was walking in the street I thought it is even so; Brother Stephens is right; iniquity did come in like a flood, when Johnson, from the South, stood in the 'Cortland Court House and poured forth his insults in pron the assembly—Judge Stephens in the chair. 'Quick as lightning the thought came to me, it is my duty to preach to the Presbyterian Church and congregation on The Revival of Christianity which we need." But Mr. Johnson's thought could not become a deed, and so le had to serve for the Stone Church, in which he preached two Sundays.

Mr. Brewer has stuck to the Church, not withstanding its opposition to him and to freedom, as close as a brother—some have thought shrewdly and some not with quite enough of the Martin Luther spirit. He still continues in the Sunday School, though probably quite heretical on several points. His pupils are much attached to him, and still desire his services. In this it is quite probable the Church will tolerate him and them; as it will hardly think it profitable to begin another war, having got out of the one just closed with so much damage to its reputation. It was rather amusing to see him go directly from the excommunication to his class, and gratifying to see him so cordially welcomed. It rather showed that his defeat was after all a triumph.

ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP A NEGRO BOY.

A bold atempt to kidnap and convey to the South a colored boy named William Percival was made known to the police on Friday. It appears that on Thursday afternoon Capt. Sirmond of the schooner Napoleon accidentally met a colored man named Thomas Lewis, who keers a sailor's boarding-house at No. 4 Catharine lane, and told him that young Percival had run away from his ship. The Captain requested Lewis to find the boy, and have him arrested and sent on board, intimating that the lad was indebted to the ship. Lewis appears to have instituted a search for the boy, and on Thursday night found him at another boarding-house in Catharine lane, and immediately summoned Officer Golden of the Sixth Ward to arrest him.

The officer took the boy into custody and conveyed him to the Station-House. It is a common thing, we understand, for the police to arrest runaway sailors, of whatever nation or color, upon complaint being made against them for desertion. The boy was detained at the Station-House to await the call of Capt. Sirmond. Meantime, Capt. Dowling of the Sixth Ward had a conversation with the boy, and at once suspected that he was wanted simply to be taken South and sold into Slavery. The story told by the boy was repeated by

Slavery. The story told by the boy was repeated by him to our reporter, and is substantially as follows:

THE ROY'S STATEMENT.

My name is William Pervival, and I am 14 years of age; I was born in Trinidad; my father is a colored soldier in the British army at that place, and he and my mother lived together in the barracks there; one Sinday evening about two months ago I was standing on the dock, when Capt. Sirmond of the schooner Napoleon was rowed ashore in a small boat; the Captain went up into the city, and the men in the boat induced me to get in with them; when the Captain returned we were all rowed off to the schooner; when we got on board the Captain asked me if I did not want to sail with him as cabin-boy; I told him I should like to: I had been driving cart in Trinidad, and as I did not like it, I was willing to run away from home; the schooner last there three or four days after I went on board, but my parents did not know where I was; we finally sailed for the West Indies, and from there to the Hampton Roads; we laid there a few days and then went to Petersburg, Va.; we haid there a few days and then went to Petersburg, Va.; we haid there several days, during which time I accompanied Captain Sirmond on shore several times; from there we went to Norfolk, and from thence we came directly here; we arrived at this port about two weeks since; a few days ago we learned that the Captain was going to Charleston, S. C. ir, I was willing to run away from home; the schooner had there three or four days after I went on board, but nov parents did not know where I was; we finally sailed for the West Indies, and from there to the Hampton Ronds; we haid there a few days and then went to Petersburg, Va.; we haid there several days, during which time I accompanied Captain Sirmond on shore several times; from there we went to Norfolk, and from thence we came directly here; we arrived at this port about two weeks since; a few days ago we learned that the Captain was going to Charleston, S. C. of which place the Captain is a native, to load for the West Indies; the crew, consisting of four colored sailors, another boy, and myself, refused to go, and all left the vessel; we were afraid to go South again and all left the vessel; we were afraid to go South again for fear we would be sold; I left the vessel on Thursday and went to live with a colored man in Catharine lane, where I remained until I was screeted by a policeman; during the voyage here the captain whipped me once with a heavy rope because the fire went out in the cabin; a few nights ago, while I was waiting in the cabin for the captain to come on board, I fell askeep on the floor; he came in, and finding me askeep, put his foot upon my neck and squeezed me almost to death; my neck is very sore yet in consequence; my parents always treated me well, and I am very anxious to get back to them; I never went to sea before, but always attended school until a few months ago, when I went to driving a cart in Trinidad. and went to live with a colored man in Catharine lane.

to driving a cart in Trinidad. On Friday evening Capt. Sirmond sent the following ite, writen in very bad English, to Capt. Dowling: DEAR SIR: I learn from Thomas Lewis that you DEAR SIR: Hearn from Thomas Lewis that you have my boy William in charge. I would be thankful to you if you could send him to me by the mate, Mr. Summerville. I want to carry him home, as his parents will expect this of me. By doing as I have requested you will greatly oblige, yours truly,

Schooler Napoleon, Dec. 8, 1888. D. D. SIRMOND.

Mr. Summerville the mate, who is a white man, rap resented that the boy was indentured to Capt. Sirmond, and that the Captain had given bonds in $500 to return him to his parents. So far from complying with the request in the above note, Capt. Dowling took the boy to Superintendent Kennedy's office, and he was sent to the Eighth Ward Station-House for the night. This was deemed the safest course, as a number of colored people had gathered about the Sixth Ward Station House with a view of rescuing the boy. Mr. S. L. Macember appeared to act as counsel for the Police Department in the matter, and he immediately informed Capt. Signand to appear at Headquarters with the boy's indentures which he claimed to have, and show that he had a right to him.

The British Consul was also notified of the matter, and requested to attend to it. Capt. Sirmond having failed to appear as a claimant for the boy, he was on Saturday afternoon delivered to the British Consal, to be returned to Trinidad.

said he was disposed to let him go, as he believed no real orine had been committed. The prisoner had heretofore borne a good character; his mother had been corried to the grave while he had been in prisone on this charge. Still, it would not do for the pisoner to remain with his former associates in the city, and his Henor bad beternined to suspend sentence, provided the prisoner shipped in the United States Navy and remained away from the city for five years. Albert Browster, who was convicted on Thursday of false pretence, was sent to the City Prison for 60 days. In the case of Thomas Corbett, who was convicted of riding the wardrobe of the applie of a gymnasium, the Recorder said that the six complainants had sent him a note asking for suspendon of sentence. Sentence was suspended, on condition that the prisoner should go to sea, and not return to the city within five years. In the case of Leopold (Instavelli, a barber, who was tried on Friday for grand larreny, in stealing several hundred dellers from Mr. Walsh, of Pittston, Fa., the Jury were unable to agree, and were discharged.
